

Leaving Lexington

A lot of useful materials are thrown into the trash by Washington and Lee students when they leave Lexington at the end of a semester or the end of the school year. Please consider recycling the things that you don't want to take with you by donating them to charity.

Some of the items you can recycle include:

Non perishable food - May be donated to the local food pantry Rockbridge Area Food Pantry 350 Spottswood Drive, Lexington 463 8484 <http://rockbridgeareareliefassociation.org/>

Furniture & clothes - May be donated to Goodwill Industries 8 Woodcote Lane, Lexington 464 1117 http://www.goodwillvalleys.com/shop_retail.html

Furniture, clothes and food may be donated to Habitat for Humanity: 114 Walker Street, Lexington 463 3770 <http://www.rockbridgehabitat.org>

=Habitat parks a collection truck near G - L Dorm finals week to the day before Baccalaureate
=You can take items to their ReStore at the Summit Square Shopping Center, Lexington
=Limited pick up service is available - call Jane Ann at 461 3118 during business hours.

Recycling

Mixed paper, plastic bottles #1 - #7, aluminum, tin cans and glass may be recycled at collection stations both on and off campus. Other items that may be recycled include batteries, books, prescription drugs and Techno Trash. For information on what may be recycled and where to recycle please see recycling.wlu.edu

Freecycle is a grassroots nonprofit movement of people who are giving (and getting) stuff for free in their own towns. It's all about reuse and keeping good stuff out of landfills. Lexington-Rockbridge County Freecycle

Campus Notices may be used to sell or give stuff away

The Rockbridge County Recycling Center on Greenhouse Road has a swap area for books and household goods where you can leave your stuff as well as your recycling and trash.