

TOM WOLFE WEEKEND SEMINAR

Night Watch

Featuring

Jayne Anne Phillips

Winner of the 2024 Pulitzer Prize for Fiction

Sponsored by Washington and Lee University's Class of 1951

April 11-12, 2025

Friday, April 11

2:30-3:30PM	Registration	Early-Fielding Foyer
4:00-4:05PM	Program Introductions	University Chapel
4:05-4:50PM	Night Watch Jayne Anne Phillips	University Chapel
4:50-5:05PM	Q&A with Jayne Anne Phillips	University Chapel
5:15-5:45PM	Book Signing by Jayne Anne Phillips	Washington Hall
5:15-6:15 PM	Reception	Evans Dining Hall
6:15-7:30 PM	Dinner	Evans Dining Hall

Saturday, April 12

8:30-9:00AM	Coffee and Refreshments	Elrod Atrium
9:00-10:00AM	"Mirror as Companion Object: An Exploration of Trauma and Recovery in Jayne Anne Phillips' Night Watch " Sascha Goluboff, Director of Community-Based Learning and Professor of Cultural Anthropology	Stackhouse Theater
10:00-10:10AM	Break	Stackhouse Theater
10:10-11:10AM	"Into the Wilderness: The 1864 Overland Campaign" Barton Myers, Professor of History	Stackhouse Theater
11:10-11:20AM	Break
11:20-11:50AM	Panel Q&A Jayne Anne Phillips; Sascha Goluboff, and Barton Myers	Stackhouse Theater
12:00-1:00PM	Lunch	Evans Dining Hall