JANUARY 11, 2017 – JANUARY 19, 2017

THE GALAPAGOS ISLANDS

In the extraordinary archipelago Charles Darwin called "a little world within itself," surround yourself with swimming-basking-flying examples of perfect adaptation.

Feel the thrill of encountering the flora and fauna that famously inspired Darwin—and in his footsteps, generations of nature lovers. Undiscovered by Europeans until the 16th century, the Galapagos Islands hold a central position in modern scientific and evolutionary history. In a place where human presence is relatively minimal, take the opportunity to observe and photograph these remarkable species up close—either sitting quietly in the midst of a colony of tropical penguins or snorkeling with inquisitive and playful sea lions.

Dear W&L Alumni, Parents, and Friends,

I'm pleased to invite you to join fellow alumni and friends as we explore the Galapagos Islands. Designated the first UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1978, the Galapagos Islands have been described as a "unique living museum and showcase of evolution."

This exciting journey features a day of guided touring in Quito, in addition to a cruise through the archipelago with unparalleled access to endemic species. Expert naturalists guide you through the wonders of this national park, whale sanctuary, and marine reserve.

Cabin availability is limited. For special W&L Traveller savings of more than $800 per couple (family and friends are also eligible), call (540) 458-8723 to place your reservation.

Sincerely,

—Lulu L., Sheboygan, WI

"If there was a category higher than excellent I would have used it. The naturalists were superb. The pace was perfect...never rushed...just enough down time to rally for the next activity. The ship was lovely...the staff including the naturalists were so delightful and helpful to be around. This was our first Orbridge experience and it far exceeded our expectations. We will recommend this exact trip, through Orbridge, to anyone who will listen. I may have to repeat it myself."

—John M., Portland, OR

"The Isabela itself—boat and crew—were superb and so was the food. The guides were also great. And on the Machu Picchu extension, we LOVED the Sonesta Posadas del Inca, the Inkaterra in Machu Picchu, and the Aranwa Boutique Hotel in Cusco."

—Kae H., Seattle, WA

"We are both professional naturalists at a large museum with research and educational components, and we conduct field excursions for public groups. We truly appreciate the logistical and technical expertise necessary to conduct this excellent trip. Thanks to Orbridge for a wonderful honeymoon!"

—Alvin B. & Jan W., Raleigh, NC

"I will have to say that I could not have asked for a better trip with the arrangements that were provided, particularly being a part of an expedition tour with a small group of participants! I want you to know that this trip far exceeded what I thought might be for the trip. Thank you for the great planning and service throughout the whole trip."

—Lou Anne S., Duluth, MN

"The trip to the Galapagos was a 10! The trip planning expertise of Orbridge, the Isabela II with healthy food and committed staff top to bottom, the camaraderie of the group with everyone engaged in the journey, the exceptional naturalists—all worked together to open the door to the Galapagos."

Optional Extension:

MACHU PICCHU, CUSCO, AND THE SACRED VALLEY

Travel to the mist-shrouded mountain citadel of the Incas. So remote and inaccessible that it was left untouched by the Spanish conquistadors, Machu Picchu was unknown to the outside world until Hiram Bingham rediscovered it in 1911. During your time in the Peruvian highlands, you will have a chance to explore the famous city of Cusco and the Sacred Valley of the Incas. Visit the Pisac Market, ride the train through the Urubamba Valley, marvel at the massive stone stairs at Ollantaytambo, and break bread in the home of a local Peruvian family outside of Cusco.

Itinerary:

Day 8: Guayaquil / En route to Lima, Peru

Welcome to Peru! After your adventure in the Galapagos Islands, arrive in Lima and transfer to your hotel. Refresh for tomorrow's exciting expedition to the heights of Peru—and into its past, when the largest empire in pre-Columbian America ruled the Andes and beyond.

Overnight: Wyndham Costa del Sol – Lima

Day 9: Lima / Flight to Cusco / Sacred Valley

This morning, fly east over the Central Andes' peaks and plateaus to the ancient capital of Cusco, and then transfer to the Sacred Valley, with stops along the way to capture scenic photographs. Relax and sample traditional flavors during lunch at a lovely local restaurant before exploring this region of Inca sites and indigenous villages. In the village of Pisac, discover a vibrant market with the colorful handicrafts this region is known for: weavings, musical instruments, alpaca sweaters, jewelry, ceramics, and much more. Find a fruit and vegetable market at the main square where villagers from miles around visit, barter, and shop. Join this lively scene surrounded by the beauty of both the merchants' wares and the traditional clothing worn by locals. Later this afternoon, enjoy time to relax after checking in, and perhaps take a short stroll through the property's lush gardens, before dinner at the hotel.

Overnight: Sonesta Posadas del Inca Yucay (B,L,D)

Day 10: Sacred Valley / Machu Picchu

After breakfast, make your way through the intimate cobblestone streets of Ollantaytambo, a "living" Inca town. Here, Inca descendants inhabit the largely unchanged homes of their ancestors and continue to maintain ancient customs and traditions. The massive fortress, perched among steep stone terraces carved into the hillside, is where the Inca won their greatest victory against the conquistadores. Next, board a Vistadome train to Machu Picchu, the most important site of the vast Inca empire. Enjoy views of the mountains, villages, and Inca vestiges as you descend into the Sacred Valley. From there, a short bus ride takes you to the archaeological site of "The Lost City of the Incas." Begin a guided exploration of the enigmatic citadel. As it lies before you, learn about the archaeology and history of Intihuatana (the Sun Dial), the Sacred Plaza, and the Temple of the Sun, with plenty of time to wander, hike, and take pictures of the photogenic site. This evening, share impressions of your day while dining with your travel companions at your Machu Picchu hotel.

Overnight: Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel (B,L,D)

Day 11: Machu Picchu / Sacred Valley / Cusco

After an early breakfast, you have an excellent opportunity to experience the wonder of a quiet morning at Machu Picchu, and to imagine the sanctuary as it was centuries ago. Today, have a more in-depth look at this amazing place and its surroundings. Adventurers are welcome to hike the surrounding trails to other discoveries. Ascend to the Sun Gate, or walk to the Inca Bridge, a challenging path carved into a rock face with a sheer vertical drop of 1,900 feet. After lunch, return to Ollantaytambo via the Vistadome train, then continue to your relaxing Cusco accommodations. This evening we'll dine at a local restaurant offering Peruvian-fusion cuisine and a great atmosphere.

Overnight: Aranwa Boutique Hotel – Cusco (B,L,D)

Day 12: Cusco / Saqsayhuaman / San Blas / Villa Tipón

This morning, explore Cusco's streets still flanked in places by Inca walls built with gigantic carved granite blocks. View the unique masonry up close to truly appreciate the astonishing perfection and mass of this true Inca marvel. Walk the plaza of Saqsayhuaman, an Inca complex overlooking Cusco with stones so enormous the largest is estimated to weigh up to 200 tons. Visit the San Pedro local market, offering a sense of everyday life in Cusco, and the San Blas artists' colony for a picturesque stop. Mid-day, retreat to Villa Tipón, which is just outside the city of Cusco and set in the midst of awe-inspiring mountains and incredible gardens full of vividly colored flowers. A local family hosts a delicious Peruvian lunch followed by a traditional Shaman performing an Andean ceremony. Last we'll visit the Qorikancha, or Sun Temple—now referred to as Santo Domingo Church—to admire its smooth basalt foundation and learn about its period of transformation during Spanish rule. This evening, celebrate the rich rewards of your journey during a special farewell dinner.
