CAMPUS-COMMUNITY COALITION

The CCC promotes communication, cooperation, and collaboration between the student body, neighboring community, landlords, law enforcement, and University.

Remember when off-campus...
You are a representative of Washington and Lee and should conduct yourself in a positive manner. Excessive noise and littering reflects poorly on Washington and Lee students.

To prevent problems...
- Eat before drinking.
- Set a limit on how much you will drink.
- Drink water throughout the night.
- Avoid “pregaming.” hard alcohol, punch, and drinking games.
- Don’t leave drinks unattended.
- Respect the property of others.
- Watch out for your friends’ safety.

When leaving parties...
- Throw cups away in a trash receptacle before leaving.
- DO NOT accept a ride with someone who has been drinking.
- Show respect for Traveller drivers.

For more information about CCC visit go.wlu.edu/ccc or e-mail ccc@wlu.edu

ALCOHOL EMERGENCIES

HOW TO SPOT DANGER...
Signs of Alcohol Poisoning
- Semiconsciousness
- 8 or fewer breaths per minute
- Cold, pale or bluish skin
- Vomiting
- Inability of a person who was passed out to stay awake for more than 2-3 minutes

ALCOHOL POISONING CAN BE FATAL

CARING FOR SOMEONE WHO IS INTOXICATED
- Don’t let them “sleep it off” or leave them alone.
- Stay with the person—the BAC may continue to rise.
- Turn the person on their side—Reduces risk of choking on vomit.
- Give water to drink—If awake and not vomiting.
- Only time will sober them up—Do not give coffee, ibuprofen, aspirin, or put them in a cold shower.

CALL FOR HELP:
- 911 for emergencies
- 540-458-8999 Public Safety
- IF IN DOUBT...CALL THE STUDENT HEALTH CENTER at x8401. A nurse is on duty 24/7.

- Give the emergency medical personnel as much information as possible, including any drugs or medications taken.

Safe Haven—Seeking medical help for an intoxicated student will NOT result in disciplinary action.

Campus Community Coalition

The Campus Community Coalition (CCC) promotes and facilitates progressive communication, cooperation, and collaboration between students, neighbors, landlords, law enforcement and University administrators in order to address issues in our community.

What you might not know:
- In between the Traveller stops on Windfall Hill and the Pole House are neighborhoods which are home to over 50 families.
- The houses in these neighborhoods are as close as fifty feet from student housing.
- Playing loud music during the week can keep our neighbors from getting enough rest on work nights.
- If you tell neighbors of an upcoming event and provide them a number to call or text then the neighbors can contact you to turn down the music rather than the Sheriff’s Office.
- Noise Ordinance Violations carry a $500 fine.

Accomplishments
- Hosts open forums
- Hosts an annual picnic
- Builds positive relationships between local law enforcement and students
- Develops contact list and map of off-campus houses
- Adopt-a-highway
- Develops educational materials

What Can Students Do To Help The Efforts of the CCC?
- Respect the noise ordinance - turn off amplified sound at 11:00 pm Sunday - Thursday and midnight on Friday and Saturday.
- Pick up trash after the event - simply putting cups in a trash receptacle is a big step!
- Pay attention to safety issues.
- Follow low-risk drinking guidelines.
- Do not walk with an open bottle or cup - that will get you noticed by the local law enforcement.
- Use Traveller for a safe ride home.
- Interact respectfully with the police.

Who Is In the CCC?
- W&L Students
- Neighbors
- Landlords
- Local Law Enforcement
- Local Government
- University Administration

Brought to you by the Campus Community Coalition
Division of Student Affairs
Continuing Issues

- Noise
  - Feedback has been more positive over the last 3 years
  - Increased Noise Violations does not necessarily mean worse behavior but increased enforcement, a natural shift
  - Noise now originates mainly from voices in large crowds rather than from amplified music

- Please use the phone list as your first call
- Promoting ongoing dialogue with law enforcement
Continuing Issues (cont.)

- Trash along Furrs Mill Road between Maury Cliffs and Route 11
- Encouraging student houses to pick up trash around their property
- Working with fraternities to implement and enforce trash pick ups within their organizations
Future Initiatives (Winter ’12-’13)

- Continue to work with organizations such as the Traveller Committee and the IFC
- Encourage more landlord involvement, especially among those in town
- Junior Representatives will gradually take responsibility over organization for smoother transition
- Increasing key fraternity representation and communication
- Continuing to raise awareness amongst underclassmen and getting freshmen involved early on
