Washington and Lee University Students working together with Lexington and Rockbridge County Residents
CCC Mission

- Facilitate communication, cooperation, and collaboration among W&L administration, student body, neighboring communities, landlords, and local law enforcement.

- Primary issues of concern:
  - Neighborhood concern due to late-night noise and trash
  - Drunk driving, speeding, and road safety
  - Fostering an ongoing relationship amongst students and residents.
CCC Steering Committee

- Student Representatives
  - Alex Gannon ’14
  - Richmond Poindexter ’14

- Neighborhood/Community Representatives
  - Dennis Cropper
  - Dave Dugan

- W&L Administrative Representatives
  - Jan Kaufman – Director of Health Promotion
  - Dave Leonard – Dean of Student Life
CAMPUS-COMMUNITY
COALITION
The CCC promotes communication, cooperation, and collaboration between the student body, neighboring community, landlords, law enforcement, and University.

Remember when off-campus . . .
You are a representative of Washington and Lee and should conduct yourself in a positive manner. Excessive noise and littering reflects poorly on Washington and Lee students.

To prevent problems . . .
• Eat before drinking.
• Set a limit on how much you will drink.
• Drink water throughout the night.
• Avoid “pregaming.” hard alcohol, punch, and drinking games.
• Don’t leave drinks unattended.
• Respect the property of others.
• Watch out for your friends’ safety.

When leaving parties . . .
• Throw cups away in a trash receptacle before leaving.
• DO NOT accept a ride with someone who has been drinking.
• Show respect for Traveller drivers.

ALCOHOL EMERGENCIES

HOW TO SPOT DANGER...
Signs of Alcohol Poisoning
• Semiconsciousness
• 8 or fewer breaths per minute
• Cold, pale or bluish skin
• Vomiting
• Inability of a person who was passed out to stay awake for more than 2-3 minutes

ALCOHOL POISONING
CAN BE FATAL

CARING FOR SOMEONE WHO IS INTOXICATED
• Don’t let them “sleep it off” OR leave them alone.
• Stay with the person—The BAC may continue to rise.
• Turn the person on their side—Reduces risk of choking on vomit.
• Give water to drink—if awake and not vomiting.
• Only time will sober them up—Do not give coffee,
ibuprofen, aspirin, or put them in a cold shower.

CALL FOR HELP:
• 911 for emergencies
• 540-458-8999 Public Safety
• IF IN DOUBT...CALL THE STUDENT HEALTH
CENTER at x8401. A nurse is on duty 24/7.
• Give the emergency medical personnel as much information as possible, including any drugs or medications taken.

Safe Haven—Seeking medical help for an intoxicated
student will NOT result in disciplinary action.

Accomplishments

- Met with law enforcement last spring
- Had fewer off-campus party incidents
- Reduced number of complaints regarding trash
- Encouraged on-campus events through Campus Recreation and Student Activities
- Successful trash pickup on September 22nd
Community Concerns

- Noise
  - Initial issues during first-year orientation, but relatively few complaints since then
  - Noise now originates mainly from voices in large crowds rather than from amplified music

- Please use the phone list as your first call

- Trash along Furrs Mill Road between Maury Cliffs and Route 11
  - Encouraging student houses to pick up trash around their property in a timely manner
  - Working with IFC, fraternities to implement and enforce trash pick ups within their organizations

- Trash at Tucker Street Traveller stop
  - Fraternities in Davidson Park have agreed to a rotating cleanup plan

- Running along Furrs Mill Road, Greenhouse Road
- Working with Panhellenic Council, sororities to raise awareness and promote safety
On-Going Efforts

- Increase W&L Women’s involvement
- Quarterly meetings with neighborhood representatives
- Promoting on-going dialogue with law enforcement
- Increasing dialogue with neighbors
  - Maury Cliffs Picnic
- Encourage more landlord involvement, especially among those in town
- Continue to work with organizations such as the Traveller Committee, LIFE, Panhellenic, and the IFC
- Continuing to raise awareness amongst under-classmen and getting first-year students involved early on
