

Design a Japanese TEA BOWL

Imagine walking through a garden or the woods to the Japanese Tearoom. What would you see along the path?

Design a tea bowl for the tea ceremony. Your design may show what you see along the path today, or what you remember from another season. First draw your design and then paint over it with a watercolor glaze.

When the paint is dry, cut out your tea bowl to display in the display case.

